MODEL UNITED NATIONS

CODE OF CONDUCT

All attendees of the conference are expected to adhere to the following principles:

1. Professional Conduct:

- Always remember that you are representing the country you have been assigned to and the institution you are a part of.
- Maintain a diplomatic demeanor, exhibiting respect, thoughtfulness, and professionalism throughout sessions and the conference.

2. Respect for All:

- We strictly prohibit Bullying and harassment of any kind. Everyone, regardless of appearance, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, family background, abilities, or any other characteristic should be respected equally.
- The principle of respect applies in all interactions, including in person conversations, online texting, speeches, and note-taking during conferences.
- Sexual harassment is never acceptable and will not be tolerated.
- In case you are made to feel uncomfortable, report it to the conference staff immediately. They are there to provide support and assistance.

3. Creating a Safe Environment:

- Physical harm and threats of harm are prohibited. Harassment includes making inappropriate comments about someone's physical appearance, touching them in an unacceptable manner, or engaging in any behavior that makes them feel uncomfortable.

4. Valuing Diverse Perspectives:

- The conference welcomes diverse perspectives and encourages everyone to contribute their unique ideas and experiences.

5. Active Listening and Respectful Dialogue

- It is crucial to engage in constructive dialogue with others, even when there are differing viewpoints. Maintain honesty and kindness in your interactions, and actively listen to perspectives that may differ from your own. This practice is essential for fostering understanding and mutual respect.

6. Prohibited Substances

- The use of drugs, alcohol or any such intoxication is strictly prohibited within the Model United Nations premises. Any individual found engaging in such activities will be promptly notified and referred to the appropriate authorities for further action.

7. Academic Integrity

- Academic integrity is paramount in the academic community. Refrain from plagiarizing someone else's work, including ideas, writings, or any other intellectual property. Always ensure that you complete your assigned tasks independently and avoid taking credit for others' efforts. Academic integrity is the foundation upon which academic success is built.

8. Dress Code

- Adherence to formal business attire is mandatory for all sessions. The dress code draws inspiration from the attire of esteemed United Nations diplomats, embodying professionalism and respect.

9. Consequences for Non-Compliance

- Non-compliance with the aforementioned rules will result in the following consequences:
- Eviction from the conference
- Disqualification from receiving awards
- Suspension of participation in future conferences

10. Reporting Incidents

- In the event of any incident, please report it to the appropriate authorities promptly.
- If you witness individuals disregarding these rules or if any situation makes you feel uneasy, please inform a conference staff member promptly. This is of utmost importance for the well-being of all attendees. Kindly report any instances of rule-violations to a conference staff member as soon as possible.
- Our team is dedicated to providing assistance and ensuring the safety of all attendees.
