MODEL UNITED NATIONS

LOBBYING ETIQUETTES

Lobbying, an informal negotiation period in the Model United Nations (MUN), serves as a platform where delegates engage in alliance formation, position discussion, and resolution drafting during unmoderated breaks or pauses.

ESSENTIAL ETIQUETTE

1. Approaching Delegates:

- Introduce yourself clearly, specifying your country and committee affiliation.
- Maintain a polite and professional demeanor at all times.
- Refrain from interrupting ongoing conversations.
- Respect personal space.

2. Communication:

- Actively listen before presenting your ideas.
- Speak clearly and concisely.
- Employ diplomatic language to avoid confrontation.
- Be open to compromise.

3. Building Alliances:

- Conduct thorough research to identify potential allies.
- Begin with like-minded delegates.
- Honor your commitments.

COMMON MISTAKES TO AVOID

- Aggressive or pushy behavior.
- Ignoring smaller countries.
- Breaking commitments.
- Inflexibility in position.

Successful lobbying necessitates diplomacy, clear communication, collaboration, and integrity. The objective is to identify mutually beneficial solutions rather than achieving victory at all costs.

Therefore, it is crucial to construct bridges rather than erecting walls.
